HISTORY

1947

Established in the year of Pakistan's independence by Mr. M. Hussain Chaudhry, Crowe Hussain Chaudhury & Co., headquartered in Lahore, stands as one of Pakistan's oldest Chartered Accountancy firms, now proudly in its third generation.

1950

During this time, Crowe Hussain Chaudhury & Co. expanded with branch offices in Rawalpindi and Karachi. Simultaneously, Mr. M. Hussain Chaudhry established the government-recognized Hussain Institute of Accountancy to train Chartered Accountants in Pakistan.

1997

The firm joined Crowe LLP International, a global network with 560 offices in over 100 countries. In 2004, it became a full member, adopting the "Crowe" brand in its identity.

HISTORY

2004

The firm was inducted into the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB), joining an elite group of six Pakistani firms. This recognition enables it to conduct audits for companies listed on US stock exchanges.

2009

This year marked key milestones for the firm, including appointments to the State Bank's Panel A and the Modarabas Auditors' Panel, and a partnership with SAP. It also became ICAEW's pioneer training partner in Pakistan and earned ACCA Gold Level Partner status for student training.

The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA) entrusted the Firm by registering it to train students across Pakistan.
