Election 2025

Imran Bashir, Candidate for Council North Zone A

A seasoned professional with a strong work ethic, complemented by proven leadership and governance capabilities. The foundations of my professional life were forged right here, shaped by high standards and supportive community of the Institute. I believe it is now my profound responsibility to step forward and guide our collective journey.

My campaign is not driven by the pursuit of office, but by a genuine commitment to serve the Institute. I am not offering promises of easy solutions, but I do pledge my unwavering dedication, my collaborative spirit, and a profound passion for both the Institute and profession. I am confident that we can build a more resilient, dynamic, and influential future for the Institute.

Services to the profession and the Institute

I have been actively participating in serving the profession and Institute and have served at SMP and Technical Advisory committees of the Institute.

Imran Bashir, Candidate for Council North Zone A

- Invest in Human Resource for “Change Management” to have a capable and efficient team across the Institute’s jurisdiction and to support the Council to ensure restructure governance role of the Institute by devolution of executive powers to a capable and efficient management team.
- Role of the Council should be as oversight board whereas all executive powers should be given to professional team.

Imran Bashir, Candidate for Council North Zone A

- To work for sustainable growth of Small and Medium Practitioners by safeguarding their interest and ensuring that they get a strong market identity of their own;
- To launch a Mentorship Program where established firms will mentor newer firms for specified assignments which would add to the experience of both the firms.
- Larger firms will facilitate, guide and manage the Non QCR firms towards a QCR firm destination.

Imran Bashir, Candidate for Council North Zone A

- Effective use of Regional Committees by shifting certain responsibilities of the council at regional level so there will be more effective management of members related issues.
- To support regional representation at the Regional Committees of the Institute by having separate seats for Rawalpindi/Islamabad, Faisalabad, Multan, Gujranwala/Sialkot and two seats for Lahore.
- Set up the parameters to participate in the Council and Regional elections;
- To safeguard the interest of the image of the profession to work out the quality induction of students by limiting the numbers so there will be lessor sad stories with the students and their families.

Imran Bashir, Candidate for Council North Zone A

- To encourage and provide due recognition to Women's CAs for an all-inclusive professional growth.
- To enhance professional opportunities for young CAs in this tough and competitive environment including diversified areas of practice
- To further facilitate active involvement of members in industry, business, entrepreneurship and public service in ICAP activities;

THANK YOU
