2. Compliance of regulations through Technology-Supported Mode:

Compliance of these regulations shall be ensured through a technology-supported mode, under the auspices of the Institute. Training organizations shall have access to Institute mandated Information System, and shall be required to comply with training regulations on the ERP. The Information System shall also offer online platforms which can be accessed from anywhere and at any time, making it easier for TOs/Trainees to track and monitor trainees' progress.

The ERP shall also offer simulated training for trainees to gain practical experience in a controlled and safe environment, practice their skills, make mistakes, learn from their errors without any negative impact on the organization or their client, before applying their skills in real-life situations. This shall allow trainees/TOs to focus on specific areas where improvement is needed. Simulated training shall also allow trainees to learn at their own pace and schedule, without disrupting the workflow of the training organization.

Unless the context otherwise requires, all other terms and expressions used but not defined in these regulations shall have the same meaning as assigned to them in the Ordinance and Bye-Laws; and words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

Trainees' Lifecycle Management

At a Glance

Adopts a holistic and data-driven approach into trainees' journey, right from onboarding into a TO, till the completion of training.

Major Topics

Trainees' Onboarding.
Trainees' Development.
Completion of Training.

- 11.1 TOs are expected to adopt a holistic and data-driven approach into trainees' journey, right from onboarding into a training organization, till the completion of training, and manage the complete trainees' life-cycle. TOs must ensure that technical-competencies acquired, professional-skills gained, internalization of professional values, ethics, & attitudes, career progression, practical hands-on exposure in relevant areas, and finally completion of training, are managed in recorded form.
- 11.2 In order to ensure effective trainings, aimed to enhance trainees' personal effectiveness, at substantially all levels across the TOs, there shall be a trainees' life-cycle management process, divided in three broad phases:

11.2.1 Trainees' Onboarding:

- 11.2.1.1 Introduce First Point of Contact to trainees, for any general queries.
- 11.2.1.2 Trainees' joining, and communication thereof to Institute.
- 11.2.1.3 Sharing all policies as given in Chapter-3, and any other policy, like Trainees' Handbook, Code of Conduct, Biometrics, Confidentiality Policy, Health & Safety Policy, Non-Disclosure Agreement, etc.

- 11.2.1.7 Setup Bank Accounts/Official Email/Access to Institutes' and TO's Software/Laptop-Desktop/Office Phone/Dos and Don'ts, and administrative/logistics policies.
- 11.2.1.8 Initial basic lessons/handholding on expectations (class-room teaching/learning)
- 11.2.1.9 Deputation to their respective units/supervisor/manager
- 11.2.1.10 Sharing TOs' businesses and method behind equipping trainees with technical competencies and professional skills.
- 11.2.1.11 First job assignment.
- 11.2.1.12 Communicate Trainee Performance Evaluation during Probation Period. (Template-PRB)

11.2.2 Trainees' Development:

- 11.2.2.1 TOs may place mechanisms for development of technical competencies, professional skills, and behavioral learnings through on-the-job-trainings, class-room learnings, interaction with seniors/managers/others, internally, and, if possible, externally.
- 11.2.2.2 Jobs assigned/rotation in relevant areas.
- 11.2.2.3 Adopt evaluation and feedback mechanism.
- 11.2.2.4 In order to improve trainees' productivity, TOs may want to ensure any other effective engagement strategies with Trainees through formal/informal channels for their professional and personal development.

11.2.3 Completion of training:

- 11.2.3.1 Issuance of Training Completion Certificate ensuring all conditions have been fulfilled. (See Form-S)
- 11.2.3.2 Share with trainee, if any, channels of maintaining post-training relationship between trainee and TO.

Chapter 12

Responsibilities of Trainee Students

TEMPLATE OF MAINTAINING RECORD OF TRAINING BY TRAINEES

Value of the Experience Gained

The intention of this section is to have you reflect on where you are today in terms of competency development and what value it has on your professional standing.

Example: I gained assurance experience of a large sized textile industry involved in yarn manufacturing.

New Exposure or Advancement or advancement to previous exposure

The intention of this section is to reflect on specific exposure.

Specific areas I was exposed to was computation of Income Tax along with deferred tax. This is the first time I computed tax of this level of complexity that required good understanding of normal and final tax regime

The level of management with whom communicated and dealt

The intention of this section is to reflect your interaction with higher management.

CFO level frequently and CEO once at planning stage.

Any ethical issue or dilemma faced

The intention of this section is to have you reflect on where you are today in terms of competency development and what value it has on your professional standing.

At the client in accounts department, I met one of my old friends. I consulted my job in charge and found that it does not create noticeable familiarity threat.

Comments of Training Supervisor

The intention of this section is to have feedback on your progress and development.

I reviewed the form and found correct. It would have been better if he had mentioned at least two major jobs he was assigned.

Trainee Student Sign off:

I confirm that the above information accurately reflects the exposure and level to which I have demonstrated over this period of my practical experience and my reflective thought from my work assignments for the said period.
